General Civil Procedures
Setting Hearings

1. Verify Judge Campbell is the judge assigned to the case.

2. PLEASE NOTE, for any matter that has not been set for hearing as of the effective date of this update, all hearings will be held IN PERSON (not via Zoom) at the Bay County Courthouse, unless the Court specifically grants a request to appear remotely (via Zoom). Just because an attorney's office may be located outside of Bay County is not grounds to request to appear via Zoom. A motion must be filed requesting remote appearance.

3. Email any request for hearing time to Judge Campbell's Judicial Assistant, Kim Wood, and CC opposing counsel. These requests can be sent to woodk@jud14.flcourts.org. Use Bay County case number and style of case as your subject line

4. Provide the following information in the hearing time request email:
    a. Type of motion(s) to be heard
    b. If a remote hearing is requested
    c. Actual amount of time needed for counsel to argue motion(s)
    d. Names of Attorneys that will attend the hearing
    e. Attach a copy of the motion(s) to the email with case number.

5. Please be accurate in the amount of time needed for the hearing. Failure to have sufficient time for the hearing may result in the motion or request being denied or the hearing continued. Evidentiary Hearings take more time. Longer hearings may require a date further away to be set on the calendar.

6. Most motions, except dispositive motions, should be set for hearing within sixty (60) days of being filed, with simpler motions (such as motions to compel) being set for hearing within thirty (30) days of filing. In small claims cases, motions and pleadings shall be filed and served on all other parties at or prior to the pretrial conference. Failure to timely set a hearing on a motion may result in the motion being summarily denied without hearing.

7. The judicial assistant will "reply all" to the email with available dates, times and instructions. READ ENTIRE EMAIL. Be aware that Bay County is in the central time zone. Most hearing times are in thirty (30) minute increments and shall be noticed for central time zone.

8. Once a request is made, the judicial assistant will provide a number of dates and times for a hearing. IN THE EVENT COUNSEL CANNOT AGREE on a mutually convenient date and time for the hearing from the dates and times provided, the Court may unilaterally set the matter for hearing or alternatively enter an order on the matter without hearing. If the Court unilaterally sets the matter for hearing, the hearing cannot be canceled without a Court order. If the parties resolve the issue prior to the Court-scheduled hearing, they shall submit an agreed upon proposed order more than one (1) business day prior to hearing date to avoid the requirement for appearance at the Court-scheduled hearing. Accordingly, to the extent possible, counsel should seek another attorney from their office to cover a hearing to avoid either having no choice in the date and time of a hearing or waiving a hearing on the matter.

9. A party need only email the judicial assistant to request dates and confirm the hearing date. DO NOT include the judicial assistant in email chains between counsel and/or staff to clear dates (or anything else).

10. If a pro se party is involved in the case, an attempt should be made to coordinate the hearing date and time with the pro se party. If counsel receives no response to an initial attempt to coordinate with the pro se party after two (2) business days, counsel may unilaterally set the hearing on one of the dates given by the judicial assistant.

11. DO NOT file a notice of hearing before receiving a confirmation email from the judicial assistant confirming that the hearing has been calendared.

12. Email the judicial assistant a copy of all notices for hearing once filed.

13. Any motions noticed, but not scheduled and confirmed with the judicial assistant, will not be heard.

14. Additional motions cannot be piggybacked on a previously scheduled hearing time without being cleared with the judicial assistant and opposing counsel, and such motions may only potentially be added if sufficient time has been reserved. To add a motion to a previously scheduled hearing, obtain opposing counsel's consent to the addition, then email the judicial assistant about adding the motion to the hearing and advise if additional time is required. The judicial assistant will confirm the addition of the motion to the hearing time. If additional time is required but not available, the request to piggyback a motion will be denied and the motion will need to be reset at a different date and time. Do not prepare and file a notice of the added motion until receipt of the judicial assistant's confirmation.

15. Address: 300 E. 4th Street, Panama City, FL 32401. There is no room number – just list as Judge Campbell's Chambers.

16. The parties may stipulate to having a motion decided without the necessity of a hearing. If such is the case, the movant shall include at least a brief memorandum of law as part of the motion being filed or as a supplemental filing on the motion. Thereafter, the nonmovant shall file a response which shall include at least a brief memorandum of law as part of the response. Upon filing of the response, the movant's counsel shall contact the judicial assistant and advise that a non-hearing motion and response have been filed and provide copies of the filed motion and response. The Court shall consider the motion and response and issue a ruling.

17. If a motion for continuance is granted based on the dilatory conduct of a named party or an attorney, the Court may impose sanctions.

Civil – Good Faith Certification for Motions

1. For most motions (other than truly dispositive motions), the moving party is required to include a certification in the motion that counsel made a "good faith attempt" to resolve the issue(s) raised in the motion with opposing counsel prior to filing the motion.

2. A "good faith attempt" is not satisfied by counsel sending one or two emails to opposing counsel and claiming no response was received. Counsel may initiate the "good faith attempt" via email. However, if no response is received, counsel shall call opposing counsel's office at least twice if no response is received to an email or initial phone call before certifying that counsel has made a "good faith attempt" to resolve the issue(s) raised in the motion.

3. The judicial assistant may reject offering hearing time if a motion does not include certification of a "good faith attempt" to resolve the issue(s) in the motion prior to filing the motion.

4. Some circumstances where a "good faith attempt" certification is not required is for dispositive motions (motions to dismiss with prejudice, motions for judgment on the pleadings, motions for summary judgment, etc.), emergency motions where counsel is not able to attempt contact because of the circumstances (however, counsel delaying filing a motion that could be filed earlier is not considered an emergency just because the deadline is approaching), and post-trial or post-judgment motions (such as motions for rehearing or reconsideration). For motions to dismiss that raise primarily technical issues which, under applicable law would likely result in the pleading party being given leave to amend, counsel shall make a "good faith attempt" to resolve the issue(s) before filing the motion (e.g., where a party omits a copy of a contract or document from the complaint in an action for breach of contract).

Setting Final Hearings (Non-Jury)

1. Email a request to Judge Campbell's judicial assistant including the case number and the amount of time needed.

2. The judicial assistant will "reply all" with some available dates and times (central time).

3. If a pro se party is involved in the case, an attempt should be made to coordinate the hearing date and time with the pro se party. If counsel receives no response to an initial attempt to coordinate with the pro se party after two (2) business days, counsel the judicial assistant and the Court may unilaterally set the hearing on one of the dates given by the judicial assistant.

4. Do not include the judicial assistant with any email chains between parties until a date and time have been selected.

5. Upon selection of a date and time, the parties shall confirm the selection of such date and time with the judicial assistant via email. The judicial assistant will "reply all" confirming the selection.

6. Plaintiff's counsel shall be responsible for preparing and filing the Notice of Final Hearing. If the opposing party is pro se, Plaintiff's counsel shall be responsible for service of such notice via email or mail. Do not prepare and file a Notice of Final Hearing until receipt of the judicial assistant's confirmation email.

7. Please note that ALL Final Hearings shall be held in person at the Bay County Courthouse. Judge Campbell may allow certain witnesses to appear remotely (via Zoom) but all attorneys shall appear in person. Attorneys shall not file motions seeking to appear remotely for trials. The Court shall consider all such motions frivolous and subject to sanctions. All motions for witnesses to appear remotely shall be filed a minimum of thirty (20) days prior to the Final Hearing, with a copy emailed to the judicial assistant.

8. In Small Claims cases, if the parties are not able to resolve the matter, most case will be set for Trial by the Judge's judicial assistant unilaterally. A continuance may be allowed upon written motion for good cause if timely filed.

9. At Small Claims Pre-Trial conference all parties shall mediate in good faith and according to Florida Small Claims Rules of Procedure 7.090.

Procedures for Jury Trials

1. Since courtroom space is limited, certain weeks are set aside throughout the year for Jury Trials, Therefore, most Jury Trials will be set by the Court. If there is a conflict with the date, the party must notify the Court as soon as possible according to the rules of civil procedure.

2. If the Court has not set the trial according to amended rule 1.440 and the case is "at issue and ready to be set for a jury trial, notify the judicial assistant via email the request for the Trial to be set.

3. The judicial assistant will "reply all" with the available weeks.

4. Do not include the judicial assistant in email chains concerning the selection of such dates until such time as a date has been agreed to and selected by the parties.

5. The judicial assistant will "reply all" confirming the week selected.

6. A uniform scheduling order will be prepared by Judge Campbell notifying the parties of the case management conference and discovery/motion cut off dates, as well as a date setting a Pre-Trial Conference.

7. Any conflicts arising from the uniform scheduling order shall be brought to the Court's attention within five (5) days of such order being entered via email to the judicial assistant. Failure to timely advise the Court of any conflicts shall be waiver of such conflicts.

8. All parties shall be bound by the terms of the uniform scheduling order.

9. The Pre-Trial Conference shall be attended by the attorney who will try the case.

7. As a video Zoom conference hearing is a court proceeding, counsel and any party attending a hearing will be properly attired and behave as if appearing in person in court.

8. So that hearings can promptly start, please log into the Zoom video conference at least five (5) minutes before the hearing start time. The judge will admit you to the hearing from the waiting room. DO NOT disconnect from Zoom just because you may not be admitted right at the hearing time.

2. In the event of a settlement of a case set for trial, please notify the judicial assistant that the matter has settled so it can be removed from the trial docket, even if there are still matters remaining to be concluded (filing dismissal, signing of agreed upon settlement agreement, exchange of payment, etc.). However, if a settlement is contingent upon the agreement to the form of an agreement and/or release, please wait until the language of the agreement and/or release is agreed to by all parties prior to requesting a matter be removed from the trial docket.
